

Obesity Competent

Why it Matters?

2/3 Adults
1/4 Children

Australians
overweight or obese

Obesity competence includes knowledge and skills for respectful care, understanding cause and consequences of obesity, and addressing weight stigma. Organisational and staff competence are crucial for equitable care and treatment of individuals with larger body sizes.

01

Environment &
Equipment Excellence

02

Positive
Consumer Experience

03

Staff Competence

04

Organisational Policies and Procedures

05

Work Health and Safety including Ergonomics

06

Advocate for Change

Laneways can help with tailored assessment, expert recommendations, implementation and education to improve your service

